

Financial Planner, Investment and Retirement Planning

Strength and stability meets flexibility and independence.

This job is all about working with clients to provide tailor-made investment and financial retirement solutions and having the freedom to manage your own business, with the strength and stability of Canada's leading financial institution behind you.

The Financial Planner, Investment and Retirement Planning role at RBC is a unique opportunity for motivated, self-starters who have a passion for helping people. Through your established and expanding network, you will drive investment sales and new client acquisitions by providing expert financial guidance. As a full time employee, with unlimited earning potential, you'll be able to create the future you want for yourself and the people you advise.

Work environment is a combination of branch and home office.

Here's what RBC can offer you:

- A collaborative dynamic culture where personal initiative and hard work are recognized and rewarded
- A flexible work schedule based on client preference and your own work/life balance
- Innovative mobile technology to help you be the best in your role
- A comprehensive Total Rewards Program that includes flexible benefits, unlimited commission opportunities, and a defined contribution pension option
- World-class training programs and career development opportunities

Here's what we need from you:

- Must currently have your Financial Planning Designation (PFP or CFP)
- Must currently have your Mutual Funds License (IFIC or CSC)
- Drive and self-motivation
- Must have experience in Financial Planning/Advice capacity
- Proven networking and client acquisition skills
- Ability to cultivate strong partner relationships
