IIAC Calls for 2014 Investment Industry Hall of Fame Nominations

Deadline to nominate industry leaders set for Friday, May 2, 2014

Thursday, February 27, 2014 (Toronto) – The Investment Industry Association of Canada (IIAC) announced today it will begin accepting names for the second year of nominations for the IIAC Investment Industry Hall of Fame.

The IIAC Hall of Fame, established in 2013, serves to honour excellence, integrity and leadership in Canada’s investment industry.

“The investment industry and its professionals contribute to wealth creation and capital formation in the country, benefiting individual Canadians and corporate Canada,” said Ian Russell, IIAC President and CEO. “Our industry today employs almost 40,000 Canadians and manages $1 trillion in assets. It also raised $32 billion in equity capital last year alone to finance corporations and, in turn, deliver more products and services to Canadians.

“We are proud to honour outstanding individuals who have contributed to the investment industry and are worthy of inclusion in this elite group of Inductees,” said Russell. “These individuals represent excellence, innovation and integrity in our industry.”

A maximum of four living and four posthumous candidates will be inducted into the IIAC Investment Industry Hall of Fame annually. Nominations will be accepted up to, and including, Friday, May 2, 2014. Nomination details, including criteria, can be found at the bottom of this release.

A Selection Committee comprised of distinguished Canadians from across the country who work – or have worked – in politics, the law, academia, business or the investment industry was assembled last year. All have agreed to serve again. Vancouver-based Nancy McKinstry, Member of the Board of Directors, HSBC Canada, joins as a recently appointed member of the Committee.

Members of the 2014 IIAC Investment Industry Hall of Fame Selection Committee include:

The Honourable Gary Filmon, Selection Committee Chair

Board Chair, Exchange Income Corporation and former Premier of Manitoba
Winnipeg, MB

Chris Collingwood
Chair and CEO, Baine Johnston Corporation
