IIAC Responds to News that Finance Minister Jim Flaherty has Resigned

Hopeful his replacement will demonstrate same commitment to Cooperative Capital Markets Regulator

Tuesday, March 18, 2014 (Toronto) – In response to this afternoon's announcement that Finance Minister Jim Flaherty has resigned from Cabinet, Ian Russell, IIAC President and CEO, issued the following statement:

Canada's investment industry has been well served under the leadership of Finance Minister Jim Flaherty. His track record speaks for itself. Of particular interest to our industry has been his dogged determination to see the Cooperative Capital Markets Regulator (CCMR) come to fruition. If this initiative is successful – and we are fully confident it will be – this will define Minister Flaherty's tenure.

With his departure, the IIAC and Canada's investment industry are hopeful that his replacement will demonstrate the same level of commitment to the CCMR. We look forward to working with the new finance minister in achieving a successful outcome on this front and other issues of relevance to Canada's investment industry.
