FINANCIAL PLANNER

Toronto, ON
Job Posting # 19-123

Raymond James Ltd. is seeking a qualified Financial Planner to work in our Toronto office for our national Retirement & Financial Planning team.

Raymond James Ltd. is Canada's leading independent investment dealer offering high quality investment products and services to Canadians seeking customized solutions to their wealth management needs.

Reporting to the department manager in Vancouver, this permanent full-time, pure financial planning position (no sales) is for professionals that have a passion for helping clients reach their life goals.

The Financial Planner is responsible for providing complimentary financial planning services to Raymond James' high net worth clients in collaboration with their Financial Advisors (FAs). The candidate must have experience preparing high volumes of financial plans with a strong background in the financial services industry. A great working knowledge of advanced financial, tax, and estate planning concepts is a must. In order to maintain an objective financial planning process to meet our clients' best interests, this is a salaried position which does not include compensation for sales or referrals.

Specifically you will:

- Design and deliver financial plans of varying complexity that clearly communicate the recommendations and alternatives related to the client's financial analysis and comprehensive plan design;
- Participate in client plan presentations in the office or over the phone as requested by the FA;
- Provide ongoing, financial planning support to Financial Advisors by responding to their queries in a timely manner;
- Support planning applications such as NaviPlan, PlanPlus Planit, Razor, and Ativa Concept Toolkit as required, including training and troubleshooting for FAs and their employees;
- Write articles for internally and externally directed publications related to financial, income tax, retirement, and estate planning topics;
- Review and assess financial plans prepared by junior team members or other financial advisors directly providing planning services to their clients;
- Develop professional relationships with local external experts (i.e. professional accountants, lawyers etc.) to provide comprehensive service on complex planning matters;
- Prepare and present internal workshops and seminars on various current topics relating to financial planning;
- Maintain financial planning professional practice standards including training, development and codes of conduct; and
- Other duties and responsibilities as assigned.

To qualify for this opportunity you possess:

- Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) or Registered Financial Planner (R.F.P.) designation in good standing; and
- Minimum of two years of dedicated financial planning experience subsequent to obtaining planning designation.

Attributes:

- Comprehensive technical understanding and execution of the financial planning process including investments, asset protection, retirement, estate planning, cash management and taxation issues;
- Ability to incorporate the financial needs and goals of a client into a succinct, professional document outlining their options;
- Ability to organize, manage, and track multiple detailed tasks and assignments with frequently changing priorities in a fast-paced work environment while providing a high level of customer service in a calm, courteous, and professional manner;
- Excellent proficiency with at least one comprehensive financial planning application, including NaviPlan, PlanPlus Planit, or FP Solutions;
- Proficiency with MS Office;
- Well-developed English inter-personal skills to interact effectively with and guide Financial Advisors and their clients on various planning options; and
- Ability to work independently, under limited supervision, in a location separated from other national team members.

This is a permanent full-time position with a competitive compensation and benefits package.
