

Cybercrime and How Firms Can Best Respond and Protect Themselves in the New Environment

November 19, 2020 | 2 pm – 3 pm ET

BIOGRAPHIES

SPEAKERS:

John Bishop

Senior Cyber Security Advisor – Partnerships | Canadian Centre for Cyber Security

John Bishop has worked for the government of Canada in a variety of roles over the past twenty years. He joined the Canadian Centre for Cyber Security eighteen months ago as the finance sector lead for the critical infrastructure partnerships team. He works closely with entities in the financial industry, industry associations and other branches of government to facilitate their access to the resources and guidance available from the Cyber Centre.

Kuno Tucker

Chief Compliance Officer | Paradigm Capital Inc.

Kuno Tucker is a seasoned Chief Compliance Officer who has worked at several IIROC member firms in trading and compliance over his 25 year career. Kuno is an active member of the institutional brokerage and marketplace community, and has broadened his reach to FinTech and Cybersecurity with increasing pervasive use of technology in the sector.